

Bio: Janice Ryan, Mrs. Reynolds

Veteran, Janice Ryan has won multiple awards in the fields: Actor, Vocal Artist, TV Host and Television Producer winning: the Chris Award at the Columbus International Film & Video Festival for CBC Artspots and an AMPIA Award for Talent and BC award for Best Supporting Actress.

Janice's film credits include: the NBC's series Fear Itself: Community directed by, Mary Harron (American Psycho, I Shot Andy Warhol), Robert Lantos' feature, The Right Kind of Wrong, (Gala Film at the Toronto International Film Festival) starring Ryan Kwanten, known across the globe as the character, Jason Stackhouse, the town heartthrob in the HBO hit series, True Blood. Janice also managed to land herself a role in I Think I Do, starring Mia Kirshner (The Black Dahlia) and FUBAR 2 (FUBAR 1 had its debut at the Sundance Film Festival).

Janice hosted the daily National television series, Company's Coming: Everyday Cooking and the award-winning, talk show The Edge, for six years.

National Producer / Director credits include the CBC's Winnipeg Comedy Festival, The Olympics, Calgary Stampede and Canadian Country Music Awards and Just for Laughs Gala, CBC National.

Ryan's Vocal awards include the AMPIA Award for Best Narrator, in Discovery Channel's, Circumpolar Bears.

Janice's passion for animals and storytelling inspired her to write the internationally distributed, Amazing Animals.