

Bio: Kristen Mary Rain-Kootenay, May Reynolds

Sixteen year-old Kristen Mary Rain-Kootenay is a beautiful Sioux Indian fifth generation descendent from the Alexis Nakoda Sioux / Paul First Nation.

When she was ten years old she took an interest in acting and enrolled herself in drama at school. This initiative, lead her into roles in the Multi-Youth Productions Program.

Kootenay's break-out performance was in the lead role, May Reynolds in the short film, The Last Bastard, produced by Little One Pictures and the Alberta Foundation for the Arts.

Kristen's extracurricular activities are: girls hockey and Pow-Wow in the Traditional Northern Indian Style of dance.